1. AUTHORS NOTE

Identify and understand the risks involved in conveyancing

This eBook is a reference guide for the Conveyancing Practitioner and Conveyancing Student to assist them identify and understand the risks involved in conveyancing, to raise the level of risk awareness in a conveyancing practice and the strategies needed to manage those risks.

Conveyancing is more than placing a Clients name on or off a Title, there are serious responsibilities and considerations to care for.

The potential for Professional liability is considerable and the need to be adequately compensated for your valuable Professional Advice.

Conveyancing is not a paper shuffle or a click on a computer, or dealing with hagglers comparing fees and trying to bargain, then auctioning you off to the lowest bidder!

Conveyancing is a highly specialised area of legal practice, in fact a Certified Practising Conveyancer (CPC) is a property law specialist and an expert in the field of working on behalf of clients who are buying or selling property likely the most expensive asset they will own in their life.

View yourself as an expert and your clients will view you that way and you will gain the respect you deserve.

To your Conveyancing success.
